

Monthly Bulletin

April 2015

Police Ombudsman's role extended

On March 16th 2015 the Police Ombudsman's Office became the body that investigates serious complaints and concerns about the conduct of officials carrying out immigration and custom duties in Northern Ireland. Prior to this development there has been no independent system in place here for dealing with such matters. The move follows an agreement between the Home Secretary, Teresa May, and the Police Ombudsman, Dr Michael Maguire.

Ombudsman attends European Police Oversight Seminar

Alarming failures in assault case

Police reform officials from Kyrgyzstan visit Office

Police not excessive in 999 response

Failures over handling of RTC

Officer right to punch man

facebook PoliceOmbudsmanNI

 @PONIPressOffice

YouTube PoliceOmbudsmanNI

www.policeombudsman.org

11 Church Street
BELFAST
BT1 1PG
02890 828600

info@policeombudsman.org