

Dear Consultee

Consultation on draft revised Equality Scheme

The Office of the Police Ombudsman for Northern Ireland (The Office) is consulting on its draft revised Equality Scheme. The consultation period will run until 14th October 2011.

To access the draft Equality Scheme document online please click on the Publications/Equality Tabs of the Office's web site (www.policeombudsman.org). If you would prefer to receive a hard copy of the Scheme or an alternative format please make your request through any of the contact methods below.

Any comments you have on the draft scheme will be welcomed in any format you choose to use. A summary of responses will be published following completion of the consultation process. You should be aware that our obligations under Freedom of Information Act mean that, while we can consider requests for confidentiality, this cannot be guaranteed.

Yours Sincerely

David Moorehead
Acting Director of Corporate Services
